Finding Common Ground

PRESENTATION DESCRIPTION:

Wisconsin Women's Studies consortium members have committed themselves to a path of understanding. At this conference, we invite all those interested to join us in examining the mind-set of European-based traditions and exploring reconciliations with Native American traditions. Of special concern is how to fulfill Wisconsin's commitment to introduce all Wisconsin school children to Wisconsin Indian cultures. This will be a highly interactive conference with much discussion and guided/facilitated exchange of ideas. You will also have an opportunity for hands-on traditional artistic expression.
