Women of Color Conference Honorees

This conference has Women of Color Honorees as special participants in the conference. Each UW campus selected one woman to have this recognition as a part of the 2002 Conference. The Saturday Brunch will be a special celebration for these women. The Women of Color Ceremony and Reception was initiated in 1994 by the UW-System Office of Multicultural Affairs and the Women's Studies Consortium. A Women of Color event is held in conjunction with the Annual Women's Studies Conference to acknowledge the ties and shared concerns among administrators, faculty, staff, and students within Women's Studies and Ethnic Studies.

Identify yourself as a part of this conference and make reservations by September 30.

Lunch/Reception/Brunch

The conference fee includes Friday lunch, the Friday evening reception, and the Saturday am brunch/recognition for women of color.

Student Networking

To encourage students from around the state to meet each other, there will be "undergraduate students" tables and "graduate students" tables at Friday's lunch and meeting places designated so that students can meet each other at the Friday reception to go out to women's music/comedy events or dinner together.

Women's Music and Comedy

November 1 and 2 is an excellent week-end to enjoy feminist music and comedy in Madison. For details, contact Tret Fure's manager, at 608/334-9590.

Continuing Education and DPI Credit

Conference participants will earn 1.2 University of Wisconsin-Madison Continuing Education Units by attending the entire conference. Application has been made to the Department of Public Instruction for 12 Clock Hours for educators.
